

How The Bank Serves The Merchant

The Bank is the merchant's right-hand assistant because it facilitates his commercial transactions and stamps as a reliable man to deal with.

Wholesale business houses dealing with the local merchant have full confidence in him if he is known to the bank.

The merchant sells for cash, and deposits his daily receipts in the bank's burglar-proof vaults. The merchant buys on credit established by his bank account or borrow from the bank when he needs financial assistance.

The Bank is the Merchant's friend. If you haven't an account with us we shall be pleased to tell you more about our Service.

A SHABBY HOUSE OR A SHABBY MIND

Haven't you been in houses where lovely flowers stood all about, and everything was spick-and-span but the library table was strewn with papers and magazines of the trashiest description? Is it a good thing to have the furniture of the house the best that money can buy, and to furnish the mind with silly and disreputable things in the way of reading? Better by far have a shabby house than a shabby mind. The shabby furniture can be burned or sold, but what can be done for the shabby mind? Use The Youth's Companion to furnish your mind, and wherever you are—in plain but immaculate rooms or amid splendors and palaces you will be at home. Try The Companion for a year and see.

The 52 issues of 1923 will be crowded with serial stories, short stories, editorials, poetry, facts and fun. Subscribe now and receive:

1. The Youth's Companion—52 issues in 1923.
2. All the remaining issues of 1922
3. The Companion Home Calendar for 1923. All for $2.50.
